

Dryad Submission: Add and Describe Dataset

Please select a dataset from your computer, and describe the dataset in as much detail as possible. Note that a dataset will not necessarily have the same authors and keywords as a publication, though for convenience some of this information has been copied from the description of your publication. Providing a detailed description will make it easier for others to find your data in Dryad.

Only one dataset may be uploaded and described on this page. Once this dataset has been saved, you may add additional datasets to the publication. If you have a large number of closely related files, they may be submitted in an archive format such as tar or zip.

Fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required. For more information on expected contents for a field, hold your mouse over the field in question.
